WELCOME TO THE COUNTRY NEIGHBOR!

Restaurant

Enjoy an old-fashioned treat from our soda fountain as you dine on one of our wholesome country meals. Top off your favorite sandwich with one of our freshly baked pies or enjoy a luncheon special from our best country recipes, including the cook's choice of a traditional Sunday noon meal served in our cozy schoolhouse dining room, refreshing garden room, porch, or patio area.

Our evening menu offers a tantalizing selection of prime rib, steaks, chicken, and seafood.

Gift Shop

Just a half mile south of Fort Hartsuff State Historical Park in the North Loup River Valley of central Nebraska, The Country Neighbor sells souvenirs, collectibles, and gifts.

Select from an unusual collection of country jams and jellies, mustard, flavored coffees, pottery, candles, copper windmills, floral pieces, decorations, old-fashioned candies, and a wide variety of collectors' cookbooks featuring cowboy, country, pioneer, or depression era recipes.

Catering

Your place or ours! From simple to elegant, from hors d'oeuvres and steaks to sandwiches and pies, we will work to cater to your needs. We cater to groups up to 500 and have seating for 118 in the restaurant and 24 in the private meeting room. Call Marcia at (308) 346-5049 or (308) 346-4548 to reserve The Country Neighbor for your holiday parties, special events, weddings, anniversary parties, family reunions, or to inquire about catering. The garden room is available for private parties.
